-----------------	-----------------------

We have been sent on a mission to slay the giants and their monster army that threatens all of Greece.	That is a noble quest indeed.
Will you join us?	Ah I see. well, I suppose I will join you. It's about time that I stretched my legs a bit. Now where to?
Apparently there is a beast nearby that is terrorizing those around it. Perhaps we should start there.	Very well, lead the way.

HERCULES JOINS THE PARTY.

Why are you so willing to join us?	I am rather bored and seek adventure at the moment.
Why are you here?	This island is a peaceful place and I wanted to live in peace, even if it was rather brief.
Is your father really Zeus?	Of course he is. My father is not one to lie and my strength is godlike as well.
